

Molina Healthcare Signs CEO Joe Zubretsky to New Employment Agreement

August 20, 2024

LONG BEACH, Calif.--(BUSINESS WIRE)--Aug. 20, 2024-- Molina Healthcare, Inc. (NYSE: MOH) ("Molina" or the "Company") announced today that its Board of Directors has entered into a contract amendment with President and Chief Executive Officer, Joe Zubretsky, designed to secure Mr. Zubretsky's tenure through at least the end of 2027. Zubretsky, 67, joined Molina as President and Chief Executive Officer in November of 2017.

"Under Joe's leadership we have the right strategy, great execution, and have created significant value for shareholders," said Dale Wolf, Molina's Chairman of the Board. "We are delighted that Joe will be at the helm for the foreseeable future to continue to do so."

Under this contract amendment, Zubretsky was awarded a special one-time stock grant that will vest at the end of 2027 contingent upon the achievement of certain financial targets. His annual compensation remains unchanged.
