Molina Healthcare Senior Executive Vice President and CFO Mark Keim to Expand Role to Include Leadership of the Medicaid Health Plans and Marketplace Business

September 4, 2024

LONG BEACH, Calif.--(BUSINESS WIRE)--Sep. 4, 2024-- Molina Healthcare, Inc. (NYSE: MOH) (“Molina” or the “Company”) announced today that Senior Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer, Mark Keim, will assume an expanded role which will now include leadership of the Company’s Medicaid Health Plans and Marketplace business. His responsibilities as Chief Financial Officer of the enterprise remain unchanged.

Keim, 59, joined Molina in January of 2018 and was named Chief Financial Officer in February 2021.

“Mark has been an extraordinary leader not only in the realm of finance, but also in strategic development and operations," said Molina President and CEO Joe Zubretsky. “Formally extending that leadership and results orientation to our Medicaid and Marketplace businesses is a natural evolution. Mark and Chief Operating Officer Jim Woys lead a very talented and deep operating team which has been the hallmark of our success.”
