

Lisa Rubino Named President of Molina Healthcare of California

September 11, 2008

LONG BEACH, Calif., Sep 11, 2008 (BUSINESS WIRE) -- Molina Healthcare, Inc. (NYSE:MOH) announced today that Lisa A. Rubino has been named President of its health plan subsidiary, Molina Healthcare of California. In her new role, Rubino will be responsible for the overall strategic direction and operation of the California health plan. Since April 2007, Rubino has been serving as the President of Health Plan Management for Molina Healthcare of California.

"Lisa's leadership and healthcare industry experience has been an asset to our California team," said Terry Bayer, chief operating officer of Molina Healthcare, Inc. "We are pleased to promote her to President of the California health plan and look forward to her leadership in continuing to deliver quality healthcare services to our members."

Rubino has over 30 years of experience in healthcare operations. Prior to joining Molina Healthcare, she was a member of the Blue Shield of California senior leadership team. Most recently she served as the Senior Vice President and Chief Executive of Blue Shield of California's Individual, Small Group and Government business unit. Rubino was responsible for product development, marketing, sales, provider contracting, health care services, finance, and compliance. Prior to Blue Shield, Rubino worked at Hawthorne Community Medical Group and Maxicare. She received both her M.S. and B.S. degrees from California State University, Long Beach.

Rubino succeeds Steve O'Dell as President of the health plan. O'Dell will assume a new corporate role as a Regional Vice President of Molina Healthcare, Inc. for the Michigan, Nevada, Texas, Washington, and Utah health plans.
