

Molina Healthcare Completes Acquisition of Providence Human Services and Providence Community Services

November 2, 2015

LONG BEACH, Calif.--(BUSINESS WIRE)--Nov. 2, 2015-- Molina Healthcare, Inc. (NYSE: MOH) announced today that it has completed the acquisition of Providence Human Services, LLC (PHS) and Providence Community Services, LLC (PCS), formerly part of The Providence Service Corporation (NASDAQ: PRSC), expanding Molina's capabilities in behavioral and mental health services. The two entities, which will operate as a wholly owned subsidiary of Molina Healthcare under the brand name PathwaysSM, represent one of the largest national providers of accessible, outcome-based behavioral and mental health services with 6,800 employees and operations in 23 states and the District of Columbia.

"We are excited to welcome our PHS and PCS colleagues to Molina. The acquisition expands our ability to more closely integrate our members' physical and behavioral health benefits and manage care in a more effective manner, while directly influencing outcomes for the better," said J. Mario Molina, M.D., president and chief executive officer of Molina Healthcare. "Molina and Pathways share a common strategic vision and philosophy, making them well aligned to focus on delivering quality health care services to people receiving government assistance."

PathwaysSM is headquartered in Fredericksburg, Virginia, with additional offices throughout the country. More information about PathwaysSM is available at pathwayshealth.com.
